

WHY SHOULD YOU CHOOSE SEPCCA?

123Freevectors.com

SEPCCA is acronym for Security, Psychology, Criminology and Academics, which are the core fields of our interest and occupation. During the last 15 years of theoretical and practical work in these areas, we have recognized that dealing with them without multidisciplinary approach and active work with individuals, companies and communities will not lead to the expected changes. Precisely in order to bring about the desired changes, we founded SEPCCA!

VISION

We imagine the world as a beautiful, safe and secure place for the life and work of every individual, company and community. We dared to think that by our actions we can contribute to making that picture a reality!

Thus, we strive to provide a quality and affordable learning opportunity and understanding of circumstances of our environment for all who want to acquire knowledge, regardless of their background.

MISSION

Our mission is to enable the acquisition of the desired knowledge and to help individuals, companies and communities to improve the quality of their lives and business in a safe environment.

Whether you are interested in our courses or services, or both, we will teach you, assess risk in your environment, provide you with counseling and guidance, cooperate with you and be with you on the every step of the way.
